

Public Lands Committee Accomplishments 2018

- Simply staying alive as a Committee despite the dispiriting political environment that shuts out public participation in public lands management.
- Attended Public Scoping Meetings on Bears Ears Monument Management Plan in Bluff and Blanding, Utah, and reported to Committee.
- Provided Committee members with Calls to Action featuring a breakdown of proposed Bears Ears MMP and talking points for public comment.
- Co-hosted workshop on how to write more effective public comments on public lands management proposals.
- Hosted author Jonathan Thompson to talk with Public Lands Committee about his book on the Gold King mine spill, “River of Lost Souls”.
- Attended Durango Wolf Symposium to show support for wolf reintroduction on Colorado Western Slope public lands.
